RE: Fulcrum Development

This is a letter of recommendation for Tom and Chris at Fulcrum Development. In March 2004, we began a reconstruction of our Whistler home which essentially amounted to a complete, new dwelling, which was completed in October 2004. Tom and Chris were very professional to deal with, always courteous and attentive to our needs. They gave us a timeline as to the progress of development and a budget. The timeline was accurate and the budget for our construction came in $20,000 less than our initial figure.

Their craftsmanship is excellent, the quality of their work superb. Our Whistler home is beautiful to live in and I would highly recommend Tom and Chris of Fulcrum Development to anyone undertaking this type of project. We would be happy to speak with any prospective clients of Fulcrum Development undertaking this type of project, and because of our high rate of satisfaction we would also be more than happy to show our home to any prospective clients.

Sincerely,

John R. Dmytryshyn, M.D.
